We at Regina Tours are proud to be involved with World Youth Day in Panama. This will be our 9th WYD and we invite the youth and young adults to gather with our Holy Father Pope Francis as we join thousands of people from around the world. World Youth Day will strengthen our faith, understanding and commitment to Christ, His Church and one another. We invite every youth and young adult leader to join us on this exciting World Youth Day to Panama City as we take part in the Catechesis Sessions, prayer, worship and festivities.

Panama settled in the 1600's is uniquely situated as a land connecting North and South America. and the famous Panama Canal that links the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Panama's Old Town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1997. The weather is good year-round at about 80 Fahrenheit. It will be perfect for our World Youth Day 2019.

YOUR DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY
Day 1 – USA/ PANAMA CITY

Today, we will depart our international airport for Panama City in Panama. After our arrival we will clear customs and be met by our Regina Tour Escort and board our motor coach. We will check into our hotel and the balance of the day is at leisure to explore Panama City. This evening we will have a welcome dinner and continue to explore Panama City. Overnight at hotel. (D)

Day 2 – PANAMA CITY

After breakfast we start our touring of Miraflores Locks at the Pacific coast to the entrance to the Panama Canal. Here, we will view the locks in operation and watch in amazement as over 20 million gallons of water are transferred in less than 10 minutes. The Panama Canal is an astonishing example of modern engineering, considered to be one of the "wonders of the world". More than 12,000 ocean-going vessels pass through annually. Hopefully, we will see a freighter passing through the locks today; it will be a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Our tour continues with a tour of Old Panama City, view the magnificent Cathedral de Panamá City (Nuestra Señora de la Asunción) elegantly dominating the Plaza de la Independencia, the National Theater and the bayside monument to French entrepreneurs who envisioned the Panama Canal and the Cityscape Lookout. Continue to the Frank Gehry's Biodiversity Museum, is located on the Amador Causeway in Panama City. It was designed by renowned architect Frank Gehry, His first design for Latin America. The design was conceived in 1999 and the museum opened in October 2014. Continue to the Panama Canal Museum. Established in 1997, the museum is devoted to the history of the construction of the Panama Canal in its various stages, including the first French construction, the later construction by the United States, and the eventual transfer to Panamanian control. The current building dates from 1874 and served originally as the headquarters of both the French and U.S. companies engaged in the construction of the canal. In the evening we will gather for the Welcoming Ceremony and Opening Mass taking place at Cinta Costera, a park along the coast of Panama Bay. We will join thousands of clergy and people from different parts of the world. After Mass we will join in the evening activities of WYD's cultural programs, concerts, exhibitions and group prayers. Festivals will take place at the Amador and Atlapa Convention Centers. Overnight at hotel. Breakfast is at hotel. Lunch and dinner are part of the WYD Package. (B/L/D)
